

Proposal Form 29th Annual Teaching Economics Conference
Co-sponsored by Robert Morris University & McGraw Hill/Irwin Publishing
February 15, 16, & 17, 2018

Possible Presentation Topics:

Internationalizing the Curriculum	Teaching Techniques	Classroom Based Research
Assessing Student Learning	Use of Writing to Learn	Economics of Sports
Economics of Higher Education	Social Media in Teaching	Evaluation of Teaching
Economics of the Arts	Active Learning	Online Academic Integrity
Economics and AACSB Accreditation	Promoting the Economics Major	Economics of the Market for Textbooks

Presentation Proposal Form

This proposal is for a Paper _____ Panel _____ Workshop _____

Title of Presentation _____

Presentation TOPIC addressed _____
(from list of Possible Presentation Topics or write "Other")

Presenter's Name _____ Work Phone _____

Institution _____ Home Phone _____

Business Address _____ Department _____
(Street)

(City) (State) (Zip Code)

E-Mail address _____

Co-Presenter (if any)
Name _____ Work Phone _____

Institution _____ Home Phone _____

Business Address _____ Department _____
(Street)

(City) (State) (Zip Code)

E-Mail address _____

Please include a 1,000 word summary of what you plan to present. (List in your summary any audiovisual equipment, including computer hardware and software, needed for the presentation.) Attach a title page which specifies full names and institution titles for all presenters. Your submission must be accompanied by either your conference registration or a non-refundable $10 submission fee. The submission fee may be applied toward your conference registration fee. The deadline for submission is December 1, 2017